Travel Info

Casalnuovo di Napoli is an Italian municipality of 46,724 inhabitants in the metropolitan city of Naples in Campania.

Built in 1448 near the ancient church of Santa Maria dell'Arcora, owned by the municipality of Afragola in the 17th century, it was enfeoffed by Ferdinand I of Aragon to Angelo Cuomo. It suffered severe damage in the 1980 earthquake.

In the oldest area is the church of Santa Maria dell'Arcora, known as 'della Putechella': it looks like a small temple in classical style. In Licignano is the 18th-19th century Palazzo Lancillotti. The municipal capital stands on the ruins of Archora, one of the villages that had given rise to the neighbouring town of Afragola. The climate is typically Mediterranean, characterised by very hot summers and not very cold winters.

Also to round off the fabulous tour, a short distance away is Sorrento, where we will stop for refreshments and a walk through the characteristic streets of this town. I will give details of costs in the next few days.
