Travel Info

GRANADA is located in the eastern part of Andalusia at the bottom of Sierra Nevada, located where two rivers flow: the river Genil and its tributary, the river Darro.

Granada is one of the most visited Spanish cities by tourists for its monuments, its parties, its picturesque places located in different districts like Sacromonte where people sing and dance flamenco. The symbol of Granada is undoubtedly the ALHAMBRA, the arabic fortress, nominated as finalist of the seven wonders of the world. It was built in the 14th century by Muhammed Ibn Nasr and now is the most visited monument in Spain, this is why you need to get the tickets two months in advance on the official website. The weather is dry and continental. The rain is rare and the high mountains of Sierra Nevada prevent the sea mitigating the weather. For this reason, in winter temperature often drop below zero and in summer exceed almost always the thirty-five degrees.

HOW TO GET GRANADA

- Only 17 km from the centre there is the International Airport "Federico García Lorca" that offers links with different cities. You can arrive taking a bus from the centre with different bus stops in the city (the journey takes 45 minutes and it costs around 3 euros)
- The best solution is the airport "Costa del Sol" of Málaga with aerial connections in all Europe and more. Only 130 km from Granada (journey time 1 hour and 30 minutes), both the cities are connected with different buses (Website www.alsa.es) with departure and/or arrival directly from the airport of Málaga, or many buses from the Malaga central station "María Zambrano" (price of 11-13 euros).

- if you choose Madrid as your arrival, this is connected with 2-3 flights a day to Granada or with direct bus from Airport "Barajas"-Granada (20 euros) (journey time about 5 hour) or from the airport by the subway (8 Line to "Nuevos Ministerios" to the last stop, change to the 6 line up to the "Mendez Álvaro" stop) reach the bus station "Estacion Sur" (4-5 euros); the price of the autobus from Madrid Estación Sur to Granada is about 19 euros (www.alsa.es).

Suggestion for cultural visits

We have the possibility of buying a pack with entrance to Alhambra, Sacromonte's Abbey and Flamenco show for a total of €40.

We need to know before Friday 28 how many people want the pack to reserve as soon as possible. Alhambra has a limited number of tickets per day and time and we have to book as soon as possible because we are a very large group.

To reserve we need name, surname and passport number or id card of each participant on this link
